MAARTEN VANDE WIELE

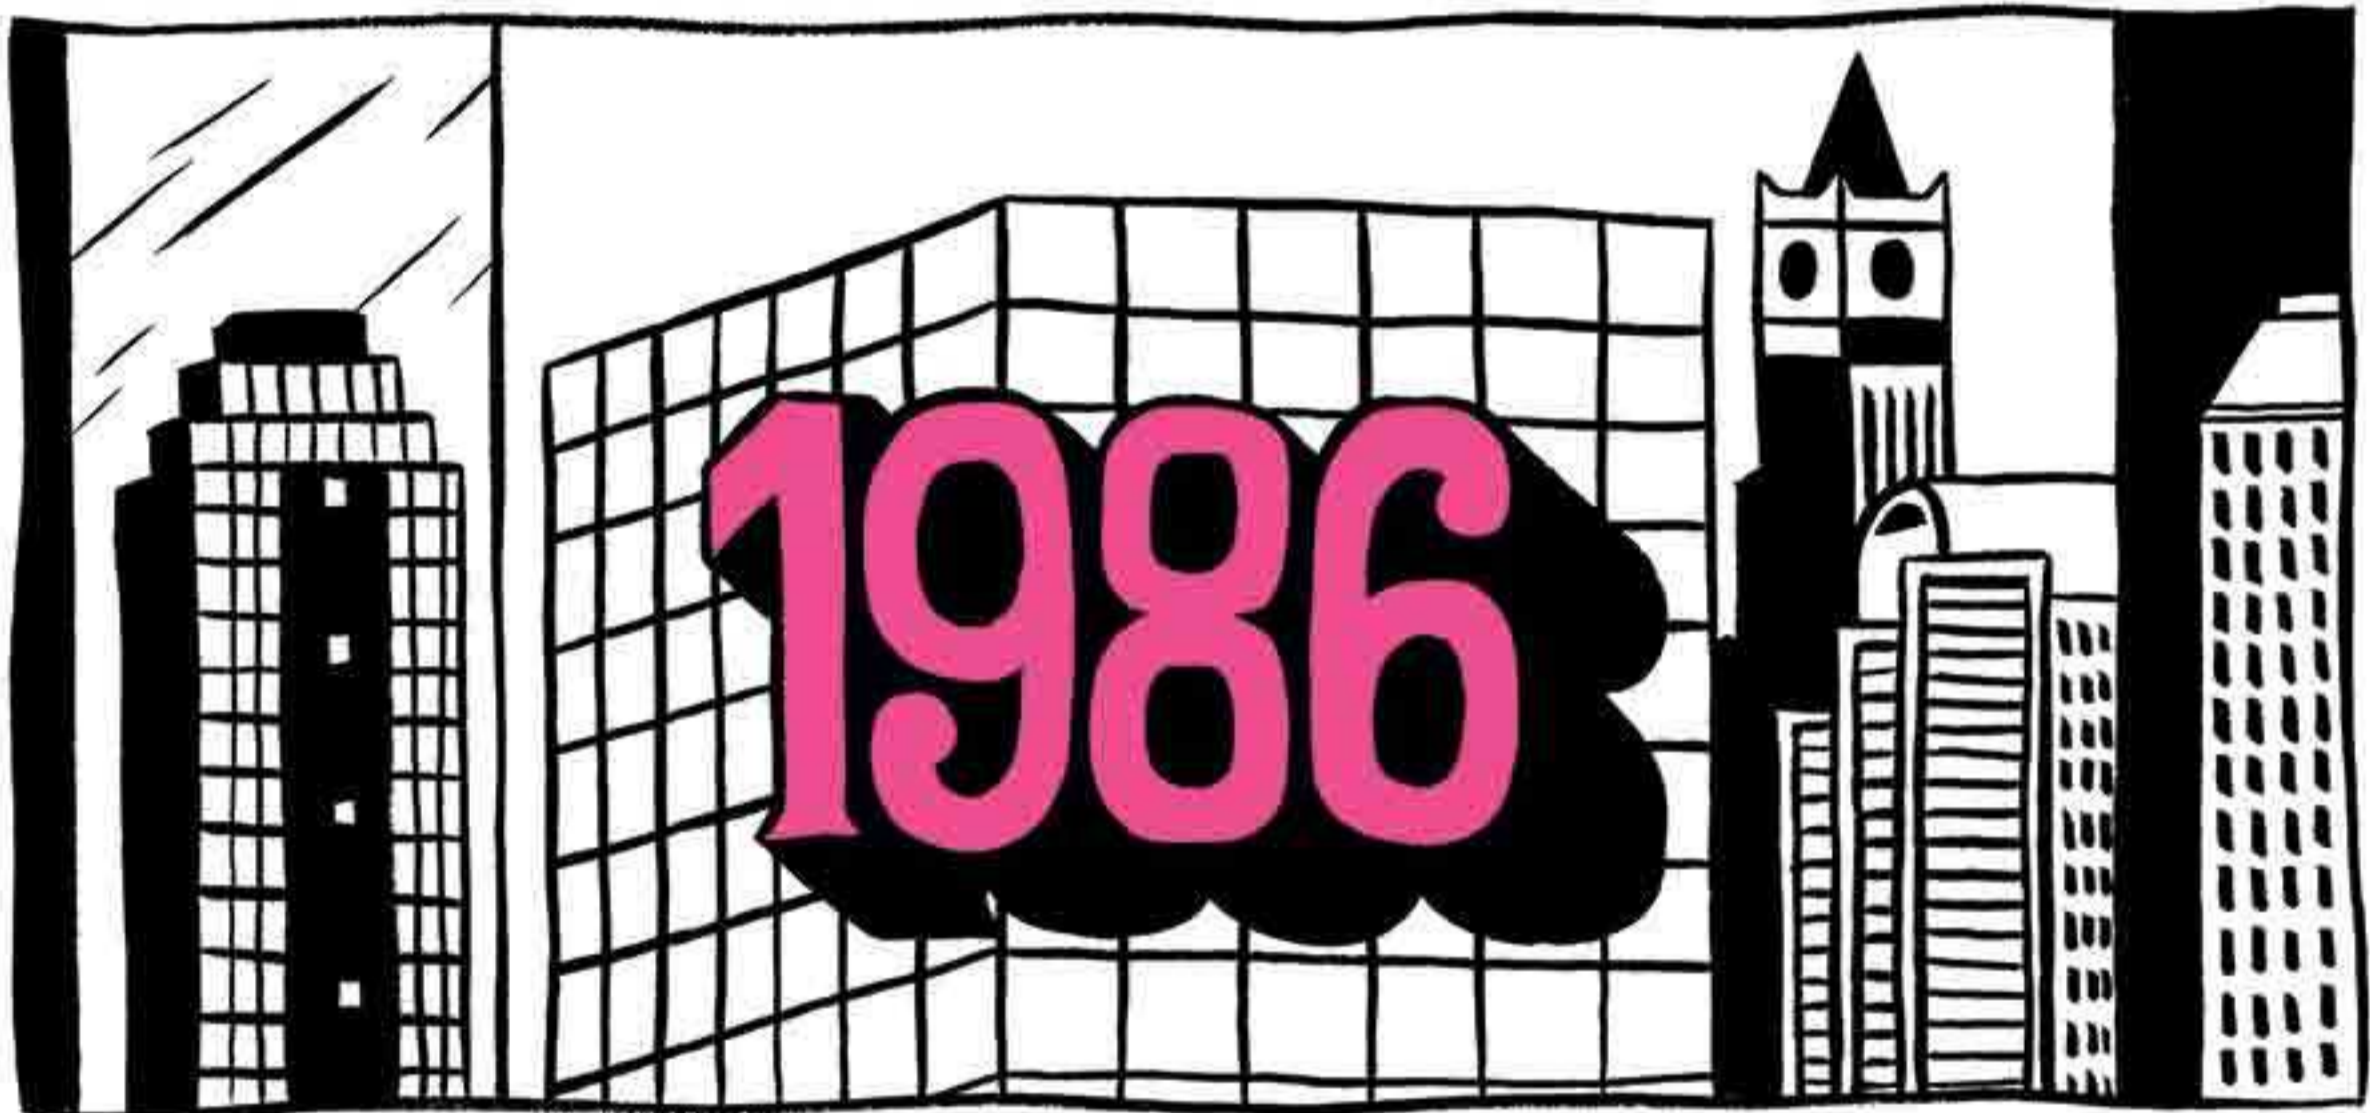

It is 1986 and in New York City the pursuit of money, success and happiness is in full swing. But young secretary Barbra Roberts couldn't care less. Barbra is dreaming of a prince, like those in her beloved soap operas. She falls head over heels for wealthy Kenneth Castelson, a manufacturer of... soap. When Kenneth proposes to her, all her dreams are about to come true. Or so it seems. But then Ken's ex, the ravishing Rachella Kabuki, who disappeared ten years ago, suddenly returns. And she is set on winning Ken back. Will she succeed?

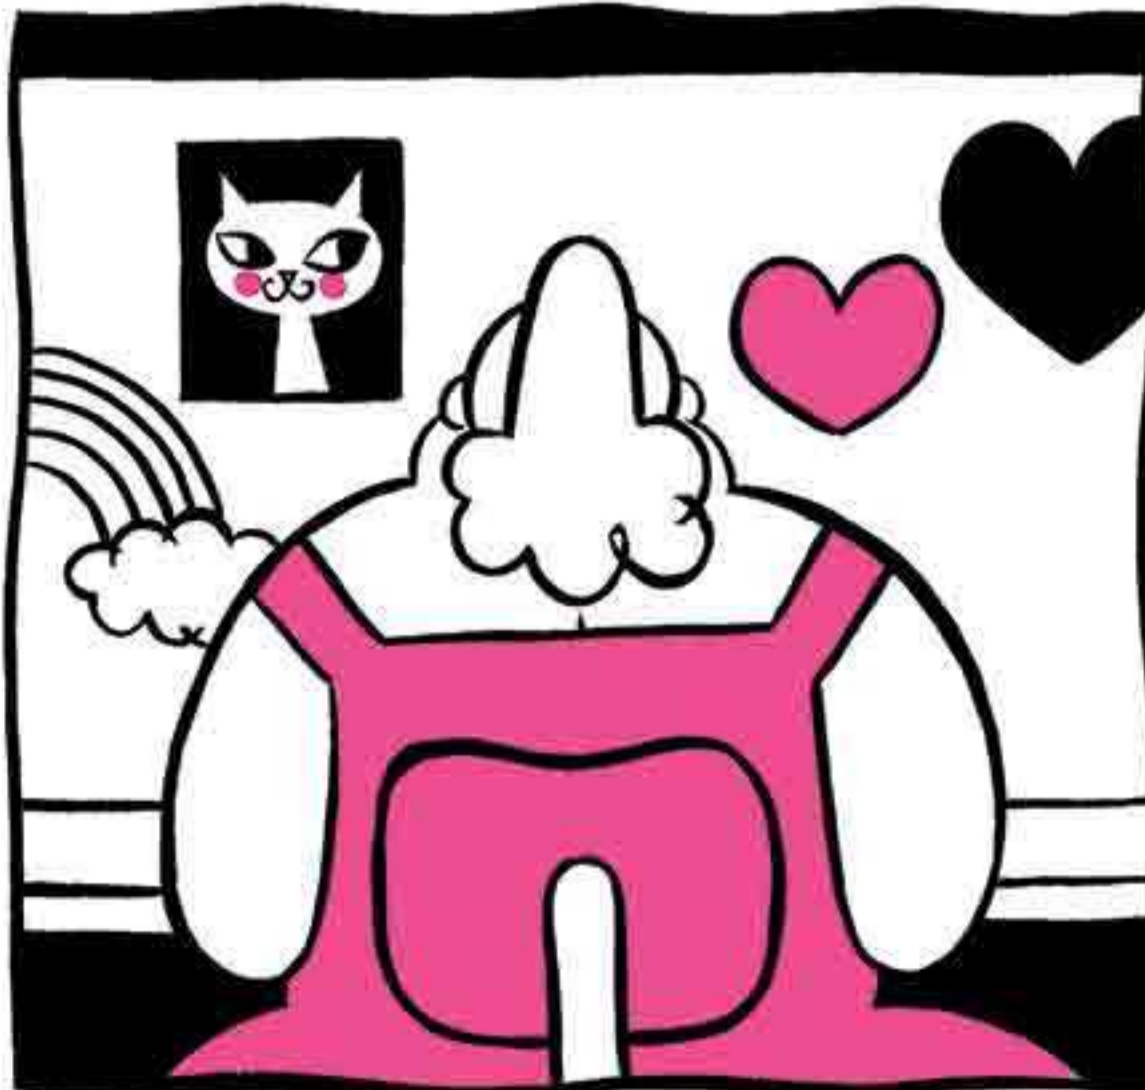

Maarten Vande Wiele (b. 1977) works as an illustrator, but his true passion is comic art. His international career really took off with his book Paris. Vande Wiele enthusiastically incorporates his passion for fashion, soap operas and the 1980s into his graphic novels. The combination of strikingly stylised drawings with a strong sense of humour characterises his work

Barbara

I've always loved you, Alexis.

Oh Blake, you're the love of my life.

Dynasty will be back after the commercial break.

Look at me, sitting here crying at a TV show.

Do you sometimes feel dirty and unwashed?

Why does it affect me like this?

Then try Castelson soap for that minty fresh feeling.
